GHOSTLIGHT

All the drama of opening night unfolds, as the State Theatre opens Oct. 21, 1928. This “Million Dollar Theatre” is the first in the area to feature Vaudeville performers, and all are “headliners”.

Amidst the conflicts of sibling rivalry, jealous lovers, and ships colliding, a ghost with a tragic past leads the way. Bubbling with the energy and music of the prohibition era, this city on the bay is in full swing with its history. GHOSTLIGHT brings it to life.

Cast: 5 WOMEN: Sadie; 18-28; This is her story as she struggles with loss and identity. Sylvia; 20-35; Sadie's sister; A vaudeville headliner; Sophie; 40-60; Their deceased mother, who died in a tragic theatre accident; Nancy and Laverne Ross; 20-45; Headliners as Tap Dancing Duo.

7 MEN: Ben; 20-30; Local fisherman; Phillip 20-30 Local shipping magnate, Ben's friend; Oscar; 20-35; local steamboat captain; friend of Ben and Phillip; Leon; 40-60; Theatre Stage Manager; must dance; Julius 25-45 Headliner Magician;

ENSEMBLE: (Director's Discretion) Vaudeville performers, townspeople, dockside seamen
